In the original paper of the article “An update of controlled physical activity trials in cancer survivors: a systematic review and meta-analysis,” published in J Cancer Surviv (2010) 4:87–100, a reference contributing data to the manuscript was erroneously left out of the References.

The publication, Mutrie, N., Campbell, A. M., Whyte, F., McConnachie, A., Emslie, C., Lee, L., Kearney, N., Walker, A., & Ritchie, D. (2007). Benefits of supervised group exercise programme for women being treated for early stage breast cancer: pragmatic randomised controlled trial. British Medical Journal, 334 (7592), 517–520, was used for data abstraction and should have been included in the References. The Mutrie et al, publication reported on a high quality, during treatment intervention that contributed descriptive data for Table 1, quality data for Table 2, and outcomes data for the calculation of effect sizes reported in Table 3.

The authors apologize for this error and any confusion it may have caused.
