

Art and Visibility in Migratory Culture Conflict, Resistance, and Agency

SUB Hamburg

A/577835

Editors

Mieke Bal

Miguel Á. Hernández-Navarro

Contents

9	Introduction	Mieke Bal and Miguel Á. Hernández-Navarro
21	I. Art Matters: Metaphor, Materiality, and Knowledge
23	Migrants: Workers of Metaphors	Néstor García Canclini
37	The Place of Metaphor in a Metonymic World: On Homi Bhabha's "Democracy De-Realized"	Paulina Aroch Fugelle
53	Immigrants and Castaways: Smuggling Genres in Manuel Rivas's La mano del emigrante	Cornella Gräbner
69	Staging Transition: The Oresteia in Post-Apartheid South Africa	Astrid van Weyenberg
91	The Aesthetics of Displacement and the Performance of Migration	Sudeep Dasgupta
107	II. Becoming Visible: Display as Tactics
109	Migratory Aesthetics: Art and Politics beyond Identity	Jill Bennett
127	The Seventh Man: Migration, Politics, and Aesthetics	Begüm Özden Fırat
143	Limited Visibility	Maaike Bleeker
161	Transgressing Time: Imagining an Exhibition of Works by Alanna O'Kelly and Phil Collins	Niamh Ann Kelly
175	The Mosaic Film: Nomadic Style and Politics in Transnational Media Culture	Patricia Pisters
191	Out of Synchrony: Visualizing Migratory Times through Video Art	Miguel Á. Hernández-Navarro
209	III. Tension: Intention, Contention
211	Heterochrony in the Act: The Migratory Politics of Time	Mieke Bal
239	Molding Resistance: Aesthetics and Politics in the Struggle of Bil'in against the Wall	Noa Roel
257	Ismaël Ferroukhi's Babelized Road Movie	Mireille Rosello
277	Interstellar Hospitality: Missions of Star House Enterprise	Sonja Neef

297	Opacity and Openness: Creating New Senses of Dutchness
313	Global Art and the Politics of Mobility: (Trans)Cultural Shifts in the International Contemporary Art-System
335	The Contributors
339	Index

Isabel Hoving

Joaquín Barriandos
Rodríguez
