

FIGURE S1. Study area in Soconusco region, Chiapas, Mexico, showing coffee plantations and forest fragments where surveys were conducted (shading indicates management intensity: forest fragment = FF, low-management coffee = C1, moderate-management coffee = C2, high-management coffee = C3), and locations where bats were captured in each season.