
Emotion and Peace of Mind

FROM STOIC AGITATION TO CHRISTIAN TEMPTATION

The Gifford Lectures

RICHARD SORABJI

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Abbreviations	xi
----------------------	-----------

Introduction	i
---------------------	----------

I. EMOTIONS AS JUDGEMENTS VERSUS IRRATIONAL FORCES

1. Emotion as Cognitive and its Therapy	17
2. The Emotions as Value Judgements in Chrysippus	29
3. Seneca's Defence: Third Movements as Harmonizing Chrysippus and Zeno	55
4. Seneca's Defence: First Movements as Answering Posidonius	66
5. The Arts: First Movements and Controversies on Drama and Music. Aristotle, Philodemus, and the Stoics	76
6. Posidonius on the Irrational Forces in Emotion: Galen's Report	93
7. Posidonius: Judgements Insufficient for Emotion. Exhaustion and Lack of Imagination	109
8. Posidonius: Judgements Not Necessary for Emotion. Disowned Judgements, Animals, Music	121
9. Aspasius and Other Objections to Chrysippus	133
10. What is Missing from the Judgemental Analysis? Brain Research and Limitations on Stoic Cognitive Therapy	144

II. VALUE OF THE EMOTIONS, COGNITIVE THERAPY, AND THE ROLE OF PHILOSOPHY

11. The Role of Analytic Philosophy in Stoic Cognitive Therapy	159
12. Stoic Indifference: A Barrier to Therapy?	169
13. The Case for and against Eradication of Emotion	181

14. The Traditions of Moderation and Eradication	194
15. How the Ancient Exercises Work	211
16. Exercises Concerned with Time and the Self	228
17. Physiology and the Non-Cognitive: Galen's Alternative Approach to Emotion	253
18. Sex, Love, and Marriage in Pagan Philosophy and the Use of Catharsis	273
19. Catharsis and the Classification of Therapies	288

III. EMOTIONAL CONFLICT AND STRUCTURE OF THE MIND

20. Emotional Conflict and the Divided Self	303
21. The Concept of Will	319

IV. FROM STOIC AGITATIONS TO CHRISTIAN TEMPTATIONS

22. First Movements as Bad Thoughts: Origen and his Legacy	343
23. From First Movements to the Seven Cardinal Sins: Evagrius	357
24. First Movements in Augustine: Adaptation and Misunderstanding	372
25. Christians on Moderation versus Eradication	385
26. Augustine on Lust and the Will	400

Bibliography of Secondary Sources Mentioned	419
--	-----

Index of Ancient Thinkers	431
----------------------------------	-----

Index Locorum	436
----------------------	-----

Subject and Name Index	468
-------------------------------	-----