The following corrections need to be made to the published article.

On the second page of the article in the “Methods” section, the sentence immediately above the subheading “Demographics” should read:

Baseline characteristics including age at the time of TACE, location of primary tumor (resected or not), Ki67 tumor index, synchronous or metachronous liver metastases, and previous treatments were recorded.

On the fifth page of the article, the beginning of the sentence in the first full paragraph should read:

After 1–2 sessions of TACE,
