Does social history affect the utilization of weapons?	28
Puzzles and variations in weapon utilization: the key role of social history	28
Which factors or facets of social history really matter?	28
'Pre-conceptions on honor' shared by the 'class' or the 'group" who are in charge of	of
'military affairs' are decisive in explaining variations in the utilization of weapons	29
The social position of the group that shares this preconception of honor is also de-	cisive
in explaining variations in the utilization of weapons	30
The international social history of weapons	32
Weapons define states in the eyes of international institutions	33

Weapons as the 'entry card' or the 'distinguishing feature' of international institu	utions34
Weapons, standard of civilization and imperial order: perpetuating hierarchies i	nherited
