

A 388347

Global Governance and Public Accountability

Edited by

David Held and

Mathais Koenig-Archibugi

Blackwell Publishing

---

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors	vii
1 Introduction David Held and Mathias Koenig-Archibugi	1
2 Defining Accountability Up: the Global Economic Multilaterals Miles Kahler	8
3 Disaggregated Sovereignty: Towards the Public Accountability of Global Government Networks Anne-Marie Slaughter	35
4 Multisectoral Networks in Global Governance: Towards a Pluralistic System of Accountability Thorsten Benner, Wolfgang H. Reinicke and Jan Martin Witte	67
5 Civil Society and Democratically Accountable Global Governance Jan Aart Scholte	87
6 Transnational Corporations and Public Accountability Mathias Koenig-Archibugi	110
7 Global Governance and Legitimacy Problems Michael Zürn	136
8 Global Governance and Communicative Action Thomas Risse	164
9 Global Governance, Participation and the Public Sphere Patrizia Nanz and Jens Steffek	190
10 Is there a 'Democratic Deficit' in World Politics? A Framework for Analysis Andrew Moravcsik	212
11 Democratic Accountability and Political Effectiveness from a Cosmopolitan Perspective David Held	240
Index	268