

Handbook of Mobile Communication Studies

edited by James E. Katz

The MIT Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts
London, England

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

1 | Introduction 1

James E. Katz

Digital Divides and Social Mobility 13

2 | The Mobile Makes Its Mark 15

Lara Srivastava

3 | Shrinking Fourth World? Mobiles, Development, and Inclusion 29

Jonathan Donner

4 | Mobile Traders and Mobile Phones in Ghana 43

Ragnhild Overå

5 | Mobile Networks: Migrant Workers in Southern China 55

Pui-lam Law and Yinni Peng

6 | Mobile Communication in Mexico: Policy and Popular Dimensions 65

Judith Mariscal and Carla Marisa Bonina

7 | Reducing Illiteracy as a Barrier to Mobile Communication 79

Jan Chipchase

8 | Health Services and Mobiles: A Case from Egypt 91

Patricia Mechael

9 | How the Urban Poor Acquire and Give Meaning to the Mobile Phone 105

Lourdes M. Portus

Sociality and Co-presence 119

10 | Always-On/Always-On-You: The Tethered Self 121

Sherry Turkle

11 | The Mobile Phone's Ring 139

Christian Licoppe

12 | Mobile Technology and the Body: Apparatus, Fashion, and Function 153

Scott Campbell

13 | The Mediation of Ritual Interaction via the Mobile Telephone 165

Richard S. Ling

14 | Adjusting the Volume: Technology and Multitasking in Discourse Control 177

Naomi S. Baron

15 | Maintaining Co-presence: Tourists and Mobile Communication in New Zealand 195

Peter B. White and Naomi Rosh White

16 | The Social Effects of Keitai and Personal Computer E-mail in Japan 209

Kakuko Miyata, Jeffrey Boase, and Barry Wellman

Politics and Social Change 223

17 | Mobile Media and Political Collective Action 225

Howard Rheingold

18 | Mobile Multimedia: Uses and Social Consequences 241

Ippo Koskinen

19 | Mobile Communication and Sociopolitical Change in the Arab World 257

Mohammad Ibrahine

20 | Locating the Missing Links of Mobile Communication in Japan: Sociocultural Influences on Usage by Children and the Elderly 273

On-Kwok Lai

21 | The Effects of Mobile Telephony on Singaporean Society 285

Shahiraa Sahul Hameed

22 | Mobile Communication and the Transformation of the Democratic Process 297

Kenneth J. Gergen

Culture and Imagination 311*23 | Cultural Differences in Communication Technology Use: Adolescent Jews and Arabs in Israel 313

Gustavo Mesch and Ilan Talmud

24 | "Express Yourself" and "Stay Together": The Middle-Class Indian Family 325

Jonathan Donner, Nimmi Rangaswamy, Molly Wright Steenson, and Carolyn Wei

25 | Nondevelopmental Uses of Mobile Communication in Tanzania 339

Thomas Molony

26 | Cultural Studies of Mobile Communication 353

Gerard Goggin

27 | Mobile Music as Environmental Control and Prosocial Entertainment 367

James E. Katz, Katie M. Lever, and Yi-Fan Chen

28 | Supernatural Mobile Communication in the Philippines and Indonesia 377

Bart Barendregt and Raul Pertierra

29 | Boom in India: Mobile Media and Social Consequences 389

Madanmohan Rao and Mira Desai

30 | Mobile Games and Entertainment 403

James E. Katz and Sophia Krzys Acord

31 | Online Communities on the Move: Mobile Play in Korea 419

Youn-ah Kang

Conclusions and Future Prospects 431*32 | Mainstreamed Mobiles in Daily Life: Perspectives and Prospects 433

James E. Katz

Afterword 447

Manuel Castells

About the Editor and Authors 453*Index 459