Inventory of the Heritage Library

Marillac Provincial House, St. Louis, Missouri

The Archives of the West Central Province of the Daughters of Charity consists of three divisions: a heritage library, the central archival repository, and a small museum. This inventory summarizes only the holdings of the heritage library. The archival repository contains administrative records, reports, minutes, and other data relative to the Province and to individual houses. The museum provides a display area for artifacts from the missions and for Community heirlooms. It is evident that all three offer a variety of valuable sources for Vincentian Community history. Equally valuable, covering the history of the Catholic Church in the United States, is a Catholic Americana collection of approximately eight hundred titles, the gift of the late Msgr. Joseph B. Code. Numerous references to both branches of the Vincentian Family can be found in this adjunct to the heritage library.
