

LEGAL ASPECTS OF EU ENERGY REGULATION

IMPLEMENTING THE NEW
DIRECTIVES ON ELECTRICITY
AND GAS ACROSS EUROPE

Edited by

PROFESSOR PETER CAMERON

A project supported by
The Robert Schuman Centre

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS—SUMMARY

Tables of Cases and Decisions	xxiii
Tables of Legislation	xxvii
Table of Websites	xlvii
Abbreviations	xlix

1. Introduction	1
-----------------	---

1 THE NEW EUROPEAN REGIME

2. Completing the Internal Market in Energy: An Introduction to the New Legislation	7
3. The New EU Directives on Energy Liberalization from a Competition Point of View	41
4. Regulation by Cooperation: The ‘Third Way’ in Making Rules for the Internal Energy Market	59

2 NATIONAL APPROACHES TO IMPLEMENTATION

5. Introduction to Part 2	91
6. Austria	93
7. France	123
8. Germany	145
9. Greece	173
10. Ireland	199
11. Italy	225
12. The Netherlands	255
13. Portugal	287
14. Spain	315
15. The United Kingdom	345
16. Central Europe: An Introduction	373
16A. Hungary	375

Contents—Summary

16B. Poland	405
16C. Slovakia	421
17. Conclusion	433
Appendix 1: The Electricity Directive 2003	445
Appendix 2: The Gas Directive 2003	469
Appendix 3: The Electricity Regulation 2003	495
Appendix 4: The Gas Regulation 2004	507
Select Bibliography	521
Glossary	525
Index	533