NASIG Core Competencies for Scholarly Communication Librarians

The NASIG "Core Competencies for Scholarly Communication Librarians" have been approved and adopted by the NASIG Executive Board. They are now available at the NASIG web site (https://goo.gl/94eisN). This document describes the skills that librarians need to work in the highly collaborative environment related to digital scholarship and scholarly communications in today's libraries.

Please share widely.