Globalization Policy

Why...

- Impact on professionalism of project management worldwide
- Improved delivery of products; improved satisfaction of worldwide membership
- Larger pool of knowledge and wisdom; establish learning opportunities for project management profession

Premises of Globalization

- 1. Globalization of corporations and industries will be a dominant drive in the economy enabled by the Internet and related technology.
- 2. Project management will be a global profession.
- 3. Globalization of organizations like PMI will be essential to professionalizing project management.
- 4. Project managers will be global and mobile.
- 5. Membership will be characterized as globally based rather than USA-based.

Ten Key Cultural Factors

- Nature
- Time
- Tradition
- Action
- Communications

- Power
- Individualism
- Competition
- Structure
- Formality

GPAT Purpose

- 1. To analyze PMI's current global position and mindset against its declared mission.
- 2. To make strategic recommendations to the PMI Board concerning the globalization of PMI.
- 3. To identify global customers demands and needs.
- 4. To evaluate the required resources to meet global customer demands.
- 5. To analyze the pros and cons of chapter components and intersociety partnerships and recommend to the Board roles and responsibilities of each.
- 6. To build enthusiasm and awareness among staff, volunteers and customers for the globalization process.

PMP Professional Development Program

In order to maintain the PMP credential, individual PMPs must satisfy the Professional Development Program requirements (administered by PMI's Education Department)

- 3-year cycle
- 60 PDUs must be earned during this cycle
- Initiated 1 January 1999

Professional Development Unit Categories

PDUs must be attained in specific categories:

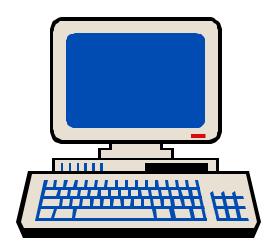

- Post certification formal education
- Self-directed learning and professional activities
- Programs sponsored by PMI Professional Development Providers
- Programs sponsored by other providers
- Service to professional/community associations

Plans for the year 2000 are to introduce the examination in a computer-administered format all over the world.

Mission

To develop and maintain PMI as a center for knowledge and wisdom by accessing and assessing project management's past and current states, forecasting project management's future state, and inspiring the direction of project management research.

Purpose

To assist in the creation and dissemination of project management knowledge valued by the profession, PMI members, the marketplace and other stakeholders by supporting the expansion of the body of knowledge, assessing the professional needs of practitioners, forecasting and assessing the future of the profession, and managing research projects supported by PMI or the PMI Educational Foundation

Projects Underway in 1999

- Professional Needs Assessment
- Future of Project Management Forecast & Assessment
- Research Conference 2000
- Research Management Protocols
- Management of Specific Research Projects

Additional projects or area of needs under consideration:

- Building a Research Database
- Advancing Research in Academia
- Establishing Research Consortia
- Increasing Research Project Support

Mission

To assist in improving the understanding and competency of experienced and new Project Management practitioners and customers worldwide.

To accomplish this, we will identify, define, document and champion generally accepted Project Management approaches and a common project management lexicon.

Purpose

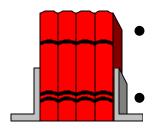

To develop standards for the Project Management profession that are valued by PMI members, the marketplace and other stakeholders.
