

Social Change and Modernization

Lessons from Eastern Europe

Editor

Bruno Grancelli

Walter de Gruyter · Berlin · New York 1995

Contents

Introduction	1
Who Should Learn What?	3
Bruno Grancelli
1 Introduction	3
2 Homo Sovieticus	4
3 Managers and Post-Socialist Enterprises	6
4 Elites, Citizens, Working People, and Institutional Reconstruction	8
5 Modernization: Projects and Processes	11
5.1 Homo Academicus	14
5.2 Globalization	17
6 Social Change and Modernization: Lessons From and For Eastern Europe	19
7 Neo-Modernization Analysis: New Theoretical Challenges	24
7.1 Is the Evolutionary Perspective Really Irretrievable?	26
7.2 Economic Reform and Social Reconstruction	31
7.3 From Post-Communism to Post-Modernity?	36
References	39
Part One
The Actors of Change	43
Contemporary Russian Society and its Soviet Legacy: The Problem of State-Dependent Workers.	45
Victor Zaslavsky
1 Soviet Society and the State-Dependent Worker	45
2 The Emergence of State Dependency as a Historical Process	47
3 State-Dependent Worker and the Basic Social Groups	49
4 State-dependent Workers and Social Mobilization in Soviet Society	55

5	Basic Modes of Crisis-Adaptation	57
6	State Populism in the Russian Republic	58
	References	60
New Entrepreneurs: Continuity or Change in Russian Economy and Society?		63
Cristiano Codagnone
1	Introduction	63
2	Modernization, the Russian Transition, and Entrepreneurs	65
3	Russian Entrepreneurs and their Contribution to Social Change	69
4	Conclusion	77
	References	81
From the Communist Nomenklatura to Transformational Leadership: The Role of Management in the Post-communist Enterprises		83
Andrzej K. Kozminski
1	Introduction	83
2	The Role of Management in the Communist Enterprises: The legacy of the past	86
3	The Agents of Domestic Change	91
4	Cultural change with Foreign Participation	97
5	Local Managerial Skills	102
	References	104
Modernizing Post-Soviet Management: A Comparative View		107
Bruno Grancelli
1	Introduction	107
2	The Socialist Enterprise	108
3	Post-Socialist Organizations	114
4	Concluding Remarks	125
	References	128
Strategies of Post-communist Transformations: Elites as Institution-Builders		131
Antoni Z. Kaminski and Joanna Kurczewska
1	Political Elites and Institutional Change	131
2	Market and Democracy	132
3	Communism and Civil Society	133

4	Society, and Elites in Transition	134
5	Elites as Institution Builders	136
6	Functional and Stratificational Perspectives on Elites	137
7	Design and Spontaneity	138
8	Strategies of Institution Building	139
9	Types of Political Elite	142
10	Systemic Obstacles to Post-communist Transformation	147
11	Types of Elites and the Quality of Transition	149
	References	151

Part Two

Globalization, Retraditionalisation and Societal Modernisation 153

Beyond Modernization: The Retraditionalisation of Ex- and Post-Yugoslavian Society

 155
Carl-Ulrik Schierup

1	Introduction	155
2	A Contradictory Coalition and its Inherent Dilemmas	157
	2.1 'Real Self-Management'	159
3	Re-bureaucratization and New/Old Liasons	161
4	On the Fringes of the Global System	163
5	Reperipheralization as Retraditionalisation	165
	5.1 Marginalization of the Intelligentsia	165
	5.2 Levelling Aspirations	166
	5.3 The Rural-urban Symbiosis	169
6	Memorandum for Modernity	171
7	The New Nationalism Anathema of Reason?	174
	References	177

Participation at the Firm Level in the Transformation Process (Three blank slips of paper and a pigeon feather)

 181
Csaba Makó and Agnes Simonyi

1	Introduction	181
2	The Role of Participation in the Labour Relations System	182
3	The Forms and Dimensions of Participation	183
4	The Role and Importance of Participation in the Hungarian Labour Relations System	184
5	Changes in the Role and Place of Participation within the Labour Relations System since 1989	186
6	A Managerial Initiative Rejected	188

7	Combining 'Voice' and 'Loyalty'	190
8	Changes Towards a Three-dimensional System of Participation.....	192
	References.....	195
	Polish Reforms: The Fine Art of Learning and Forgetting	197
	Piotr Ploszajski
1	How this Paper Began	197
2	Beauty and the Beast: The rise and fall of what used to be everybody's favourite fairy tale	198
3	The Discreet Charm of Simple Choices	200
4	From Simple Choice to a Choice Matrix	202
5	Learning to Forget.....	204
6	The Crowded Boat.....	207
7	From Newtonian to Einsteinian Sociology	207
8	Hybrid Theories for Hybrid Systems.....	208
	References.....	211
	Theory, Specificity, Change: Emulation, Selective Incorporation and Modernization	213
	Roland Robertson
1	Basic Considerations	213
2	Cross-Societal Emulation and Selective Incorporation	216
3	Other Conceptual and Analytical Problems.....	218
4	Modernization and Convergence	223
5	Globalization, Not Convergence.....	224
6	Comparative Dynamics and Modernization	226
7	Conclusion	229
	References.....	230
	Part Three
	Social Change and Modernisation: Lessons for and from Eastern Europe	233
	Cultural and Civilizational Change: The Core of Post-communist Transition	235
	Piotr Sztompka
1	In Search of Theoretical Resources	235
2	Cultural-civilizational Analysis	237

3	Three Heuristic Sources and their Tentative Applications	239
4	Conclusion	246
	References	246

Modernization in a Millenarian Decade: Lessons for and from Eastern Europe		249
Edward A. Tiryakian

1	Introduction	249
2	Rethinking Modernization	251
3	Lessons for East Europe	256
4	Lessons from Eastern Europe	260
	References	263

From Post-Communism to Post-Modernity? Economy and Society in Eastern European Transformations		265
Klaus Müller

1	Introduction	265
2	Changing Patterns of Modernization	267
2.1	The Classical Discourse on Modernization	267
2.2	The Neo-Parsonian Comeback of Modernization Theory	270
2.3	The 'Morning after': The Defects of the Neo-Parsonian Approach	271
3	The Negative Sociology of Analysis of Economic Reform	274
3.1	Elements of the Economic Discourse on Transformation	274
3.2	The Politics of 'Pure Economy'	276
4	Bringing Sociology Back In	278
4.1	Beyond the 'Pure Market'	278
4.2	Reorganizing Property Relations	280
4.3	Toward a Political Sociology of Transformation	282
4.4	Beyond the State and the Market	283
5	From Post-Communism to Post-Modernity?	285
	References	290

Notes on Contributors	295
-----------------------------	-----

Subject Index	299
---------------------	-----

Name Index	309
------------------	-----