

Soldiers, writers and statesmen of the English Revolution

---

EDITED BY
IAN GENTLES
JOHN MORRILL
AND
BLAIR WORDEN

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Austin Woolrych	Frontispiece
Preface	page ix
JOHN MORRILL
Austin Woolrych: an appreciation	I
LESLEY LE CLAIRE
1 Secret alliance and Protestant agitation in two kingdoms: the early Caroline background to the Irish Rebellion of 1641	19
JOHN REEVE
2 Of armies and architecture: the employments of Robert Scawen	36
JOHN ADAMSON
3 George Digby, Royalist intrigue and the collapse of the cause	68
IAN ROY
4 The iconography of revolution: England 1642–1649	91
IAN GENTLES
5 The casualties of war: treatment of the dead and wounded in the English Civil War	114
BARBARA DONAGAN
6 'A bastard kind of militia', localism, and tactics in the second civil war	133
SARAH BARBER
7 Cromwell's commissioners for preserving the peace of the Commonwealth: a Staffordshire case study	151
JOHN SUTTON

8	Colonel Gervase Benson, Captain John Archer and the corporation of Kendal, c. 1644–c. 1655	183
	C. B. PHILLIPS
9	Repacifying the polity: the responses of Hobbes and Harrington to the 'crisis of the common law'	202
	GLENN BURGESS
10	Equality in an unequal commonwealth: James Harrington's republicanism and the meaning of equality	229
	J. C. DAVIS
11	John Milton and Oliver Cromwell	243
	BLAIR WORDEN
12	From pillar to post: Milton and the attack on republican humanism at the Restoration	265
	NICHOLAS VON MALTZAHN
13	'They that pursew perfaction on earth ...': the political progress of Robert Overton	286
	BARBARA TAFT
14	Locke no Leveller	304
	G. E. AYLMER
	A bibliography of the writings of Austin Woolrych 1955–95	323
	compiled by SARA COOMBS
	Index	336

Frontispiece photograph by Gerard Hearne