

T304

THE CHOICES JUSTICES MAKE

Lee Epstein

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Jack Knight

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

A Division of Congressional Quarterly Inc.
Washington, D.C.

Contents

Tables and Figures	ix
Preface	xi
CHAPTER ONE. A Strategic Account of Judicial Decisions	1
Overview of the Strategic Account	9
Major Components of the Strategic Account	10
Conclusion	18
CHAPTER TWO. Justices as Policy Seekers	22
Reasonableness of Policy Assumption	23
Exclusive Focus on Policy Goals	36
Attainment of Goals	50
CHAPTER THREE. Strategic Interaction	56
Bargaining	58
Forward Thinking	79
Manipulating the Agenda	88
Strategic Opinion Writing	95
CHAPTER FOUR. The Institutional Context I	112
Institutions and the Formation of Expectations	115
The Internal Institutions of the Court	118

CHAPTER FIVE. The Institutional Context II 138

Separation of Powers 139

The Court and the American People 157

CHAPTER SIX. Implications of the Strategic Account 182

Implications for the Emergence of Law 182

Implications for the Future Study of Courts and Law 184

APPENDIX 187

INDEX 189