

The Compact City: A Sustainable Urban Form?

Edited by

Mike Jenks, Elizabeth Burton and Katie Williams

Oxford Brookes University, Oxford, UK

E & FN SPON
An Imprint of Chapman & Hall

London · Glasgow · Weinheim · New York · Tokyo · Melbourne · Madras

Contents

Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	1
Compact Cities and Sustainability: An Introduction	3
Mike Jenks, Elizabeth Burton and Katie Williams
 Compact City Theory	9
Introduction	11
Centrists, Decentrists and Compromisers: Views on the Future of Urban Form	13
Michael Breheny
In Favour of the Compact City	36
Mayer Hillman
Density, Efficiency and Equality in Australian Cities	45
Hugh Stretton
The Compact City: A Successful, Desirable and Achievable Urban Form?	53
Louise Thomas and Will Cousins
How Compact is Sustainable – How Sustainable is Compact?	66
Ernie Scoffham and Brenda Vale
The Search for a Sustainable Urban Form	74
Michael Welbank

Achieving the Compact City through Intensification: An Acceptable Option?	83
Katie Williams, Elizabeth Burton and Mike Jenks
Part Two Social and Economic Issues	97
Introduction	99
Running the Gauntlet: A Compact City within a Doughnut of Decay	101
Hedley Smyth
Economic and Social Issues	114
Christopher Knight
The Compact City and the Market: The Case of Residential Development	122
Charles Fulford
The Compact City and the Quality of Life	134
Martin Crookston, Patrick Clarke and Joanna Averley
Not Compact Cities but Sustainable Regions	143
Ray Green
Urban Consolidation and the Family	155
Patrick N. Troy
Part Three Environment and Resources	167
Introduction	169
The Transport Dimension	171
George Barrett
Travel Behaviour and Local Accessibility to Services and Facilities	181
Stuart Farthing, John Winter and Tessa Coombes
Sustainable Transport in a Compact City	190
Peter Nijkamp and Sytze A. Rienstra
Environmental Stress and Urban Policy	200
Patrick N. Troy
Part Four Measuring and Monitoring	213
Introduction	215
The Precautionary Principle and the Compact City	217
Elizabeth Wilson

The Compact City and Urban Sustainability: Conflicts and Complexities	231
Elizabeth Burton, Katie Williams and Mike Jenks
Environmental Capacity of a Historic City: The Chester Experience	248
Peter Drummond and Corinne Swain
City Space and Pollution Dispersion: A Modelling and Monitoring Exercise	259
Caitríona Ní Riain, Ben Croxford, John Littler and Alan Penn
Implementation	273
Introduction	275
Who Will Care for Compact Cities?	277
Richard Pratt and Peter Larkham
Repairing Our Much Abused Cities: The Way to Sustainable Living	289
Harley Sherlock
Urban Footprints: Making Best Use of Urban Land and Resources – A Rural Perspective	298
Tony Burton and Lilli Matson
The Compact City and the Need to Travel: The Implementation of UK Planning Policy Guidance	302
Michael Breheny, Adrian Gurney and James Strike
Sustainability in Scottish Cities: Two Case Studies of Local Management	318
Jim Johnson
A New Compact City Form: Concepts in Practice	328
Louise Thomas and Will Cousins
Conclusion	339
A Question of Sustainable Urban Form: Conclusion	341
Mike Jenks, Katie Williams and Elizabeth Burton
Index	346