

The Ethnic Origins of Nations

Anthony D. Smith

Contents

Preface	ix
Note to Maps	xi
Maps	xii
Introduction	1
1 Are nations modern?	6
'Modernists' and 'primordialists'	7
Ethnie , myths and symbols	13
The durability of ethnic communities	16
 Part I Ethnic communities in pre-modern eras
2 Foundations of ethnic community	21
The dimensions of ethnie	22
Some bases of ethnic formation	32
Structure and persistence of ethnie	41
3 Ethnie and ethnicism in history	47
Uniqueness and exclusion	47
Ethnic resistance and renewal	50
External threat and ethnic response	54
Two types of ethnic mythomoteur	57
4 Class and ethnie in agrarian societies	69
The problem of 'social penetration'	70
Military mobilization and ethnic consciousness	73
Two types of ethnie	76
Ethnic polities	89

viii Contents

5	Ethnic survival and dissolution	92
	Location and sovereignty	93
	Demographic and cultural continuity	96
	Dissolution of ethnic	98
	Ethnic survival	105
	Ethnic socialization and religious renewal	119

Part II Ethnic and nations in the modern era

6	The formation of nations	129
	Western revolutions	130
	Territorial and ethnic nations	134
	Nation-formation	138
	The ethnic model	144
	Ethnic solidarity or political citizenship?	149
7	From ethnic to nation	153
	Politicization of ethnic	154
	The new priesthood	157
	Autarchy and territorialization	161
	Mobilization and inclusion	165
	The new imagination	169
8	Legends and landscapes	174
	Nostalgia and posterity	174
	The sense of 'the past'	177
	Romantic nationalism as an 'historical drama'	179
	Poetic spaces: the uses of landscape	183
	Golden ages: the uses of history	191
	Myths and nation-building	200
9	The genealogy of nations	209
	Parmenideans and Heraclitans	210
	The 'antiquity' of nations	212
	Transcending ethnicity?	214
	A world of small nations?	217
	Ethnic mobilization and global security	221
	Notes	227
	Bibliography	278
	Index	303