Unfortunately the original publication is missing Fig. 1.
Please find the figure here:

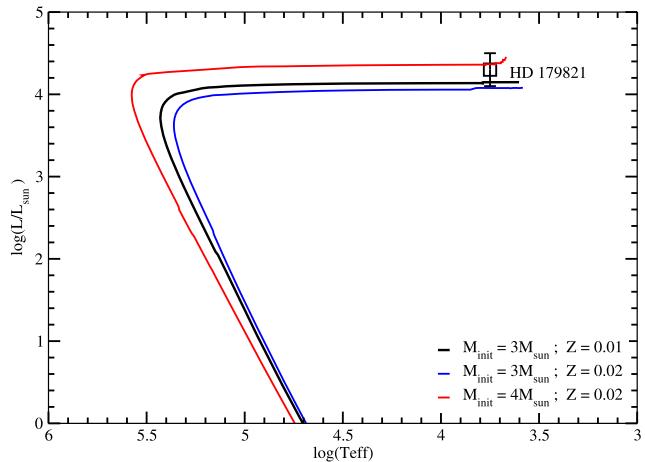

Fig. 1 HR diagram. HD 179821 is located with $T_{\text{eff}} = 5660$ K and $\log(L/L_{\odot}) = 4.3 \pm 0.2$ (see Sect. 3). The post-AGB models come from Miller Bertolami (2016); the initial masses and metallicities are indicated
