

---

TRUST AND TRUSTWORTHINESS

---

RUSSELL HARDIN

VOLUME IV IN THE RUSSELL SAGE FOUNDATION SERIES ON TRUST

Russell Sage Foundation • New York

Contents

	About the Author	xiii
	Acknowledgments	xv
	Preface	xix
Chapter 1	Trust	1
	Trust as Encapsulated Interest	3
	Elements of Trust as Encapsulated Interest	7
	Trust as a Three-Part Relation	9
	Trust and Cooperation	10
	Acting on Trust as Involving Risk	11
	The Rationality of Trust	13
	One-Way Trust	14
	Mutual Trust	17
	Thick Relationships	21
	From Interests to Well-being	23
	Concluding Remarks	24
Chapter 2	Trustworthiness	28
	Trust and Trustworthiness	29
	Dispositions of Trustworthiness	32
	Bald Dispositions	33
	Moral Dispositions for Trustworthiness	36
	Moral Rules	38
	Consequences	39
	External Motivations for Trustworthiness	40
	Social Constraints	42
	Institutional Constraints	46
	Norms of Trustworthiness	48
	Concluding Remarks	52

Chapter 3	Conceptions and Misconceptions	54
	Conceptual Confusions	55
	Trust as Reductive Versus
	Non-Reductive	56
	Trust as Behavioral Versus Cognitive	58
	Trust as a Two-Part Relation:
	Open-Ended Trust	60
	Trust as a Two-Part Relation: Generalized
	or Social Trust	60
	Promise Keeping and Trust	62
	Trusting and Entrusting	65
	Other Visions of Trust	66
	Trust as Not Knowledge	67
	Trust as Noncognitive	68
	Trust as Ungrounded Faith	69
	Trust as Scant Expectations	73
	Trust as Moral	74
	Trust as Dependent on Characteristics
	of the Trusted	78
	Instant Trust	79
	Trust as a Good	81
	Trustworthiness as a Commodity	82
	Trustworthiness as Social Capital	83
	Motivations and Trustworthiness	84
	Concluding Remarks	87
Chapter 4	Distrust	89
	Asymmetries Between Trust and Distrust	90
	Uncertainty and Distrust	93
	Pervasive Distrust	95
	Subsistence Communities	98
	Power and Distrust	100
	Social Uses of Distrust	103
	Distrust and Liberal Government	107
	Cooperation Without Trustworthiness	108
	Concluding Remarks	110
Chapter 5	The Epistemology of Trust	113
	Street-Level Epistemology	115
	The Learned Capacity to Trust	116
	Low and High Capacity for Trust	119
	Modeling Learned Capacity to Trust	120
	Shortcomings of the Model	124

	Further Implications of the Learned
	Capacity to Trust	125
	The Outsider	126
	Sanctions and Trust	127
	Concluding Remarks	129
Chapter 6	Managing Trust	133
	Developmental Accounts of Trust	134
	Psychological Development	134
	Genetic Evolutionary Development	135
	Social Evolutionary Development	137
	Initiation of Trust Relations	138
	Reputational Incentives	139
	Intermediaries in Trust	140
	Falling in Love	142
	Shared Interests	144
	Maintenance of Trust Through Feedback	145
	Concluding Remarks	150
Chapter 7	Trust and Government	151
	Governmental Trustworthiness	152
	Citizen Trust of Government	154
	Quasi Trust	156
	Declining Trust in Government	159
	Distrust in Government	164
	Endemic Distrust	168
	Concluding Remarks	170
Chapter 8	Trust and Society	173
	Cooperation in Dyads	175
	Cooperation in Groups	180
	Collective Action	181
	Norms of Cooperativeness	183
	Cooperation in the Economy	186
	Cooperation in Institutional Settings	191
	Trust and Social Structure	193
	Concluding Remarks	197
Appendix	Survey Questions on Trust	201
	Notes	203
	References	217
	Index	227