

Writing on Hands
Memory and Knowledge in Early Modern Europe

Claire Richter Sherman

With contributions by

Brian P. Copenhaver

Martin Kemp

Sachiko Kusukawa

Susan Forscher Weiss

Edited by

Claire Richter Sherman and

Peter M. Lukehart

The Trout Gallery, Dickinson College,
with the participation of The Folger Shakespeare Library

Distributed by University of Washington Press
Seattle

Writing on Hands

Contents

Foreword and Acknowledgments of The Trout Gallery's Director	7
Foreword of The Folger Shakespeare Library's Director	11
Curator's Acknowledgments	12
Introduction Claire Richter Sherman	13
"The Handy Worke of the Incomprehensible Creator" Martin Kemp	22
A Manual Computer for Reckoning Time Sachiko Kusakawa	28
The Singing Hand Susan Forscher Weiss	35
A Show of Hands Brian P. Copenhaver	46
Catalogue of Works	61
Prefatory Notes	61
I. Reading the Writing on Hands	64
Mentor, Metaphor, and Map: Cat. 1-4
Identity, Intelligence, and Creativity: Cat. 5-10
II. The Handiwork of the Creator	86
The Noblest Creation: Cat. 11-16
The Instrument of Instruments: Cat. 17-25
III. Messengers of the World	128
The Sense of Touch: Cat. 26-33
Inscribing Memory: Cat. 34-39
IV. Knowledge on Hand	162
Manipulating Time: Cat. 40-45
Steps to Singing: Cat. 46-50
Companion of Eloquence: Cat. 51-56
V. The Whole World in the Hand	200
The Body as Microcosm: Cat. 57-62
Signs upon the Hand: Cat. 63-68
The Hand of the Philosopher: Cat. 69-73
VI. Guiding Hands	244
Defenders of Faith: Cat. 74-78
Guardians of Morals: Cat. 79-83
Bibliography of Frequently Cited Sources	268
Index of Authors and Their Works	270
Index of Artists	272
Photographic Credits	276
Notes on Contributors	277